In the eighteenth century, Bach's Cello Suites were sometimes danced to - come and see how!

What better way to deepen our appreciation of the dance movements of the Bach Suites than through dance itself? Cellists Rosanne Hunt and Josephine Vains, and harpsichordist Ann Morgan are joined by Fiona Garlick and John Barnard of Sydney's 'The Early Dance Consort' to dance to Menuets, Giges and Gavottes in historical dress and with choreography unique to this concert.

Johann Sebastian Bach
